

JACQUELINE CAMPBELL

OBITUARY

Jacqueline Kay Campbell,

affectionately known as Mom, Grandma, Sis, Aunty, Jackie, and Jack-Jack came into this world on March 5, 1941 from the union of Naomi Forrester and George Campbell. In Kingston Jamaica. Jackie was the first of seven children. Jackie the first born, was always a leader and demonstrated her leadership skills while assisting her mother with her younger siblings. Jackie by profession was known as a seamstress and baker, she excelled in home economics. While in Jamaica many would line up on Sunday evening for her tasty bull cake. Jackie was blessed with 5 children: Faith, Paulette, Devon "Peter", Colette "Wendy", Shawna "Sherine".

In 1973 Jackie migrated to the United States in hopes of achieving the "American Dream" and resided in Brooklyn NY. While living in America she began her journey as a Registered Nurse, she fear of lizards and refusal to dissect one ended the journey. She became a Certified Nurses Aide and a Home Health Aide instead. She spent most of her career at the New Hyde Park home health aide agency.

2001 Jackie accepted the faith and became a baptized member of the Brooklyn Seventh Day Adventist church. The Brooklyn Church became more than an a church they became family.

She served faithfully as usher and deaconess. She also was a member of the Sanctuary choir. Jackie will always be remembered for her bubbly personality and gorgeous gray eyes. Jackie loved and was loved by the members of the Mount Pisgah SDA church, her second church family when she was not in Brooklyn you can certainly find her at Mount Pisgah.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children: Faith Walters, Paulette Clarke, Devon "Peter" King, Colette "Wendy" Martin, Shawna "Sherine" Martin.

Hymn No. 493

"Fill My Cup Lord"

Like the woman at the well I was seeking
For things that could not satisfy;
And then I heard my Savior
speaking:
"Draw from My well that never shall run dry."

Refrain

Fill my cup, Lord,
I lift it up, Lord!
Come and quench this
thirsting of my soul;
Bread of heaven,
feed me till I want no more-Fill my cup, fill it up and make me whole!

There are millions in this world who are craving
The pleasure earthly things afford;
But none can match the wondrous treasure
That I find in Jesus Christ my Lord.

So, my children, if the things
this world gave you Leave hungers that won't pass away,
My blessed Lord will come and save you,
If you kneel to Him and
humbly pray:

Hymn No. 449

"Never Part Again"

There is a land of pure delight,
Where bliss eternal reigns,
Infinite day excludes the night
And pleasures banish pain.

Refrain

We're trav'ling to Immanuel's land,
We soon shall hear the trumpet sound,
And soon we shall with Jesus reign,
And never, never part again.
What! Never part again?
No, never part again,
What! Never part again?
No, never part again,
And soon we shall
with Jesus reign,
And never,
never part again.

There everlasting spring abides,
And never with'ring flowers,
And but a little space divides
This heav'nly land from ours.

Could we but stand
where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not all this world's pretended good
Could ever charm us more.

Hymns

Poem: Why?

Ever since you went away the days go slowly by
And the hardest thing to cope with is never knowing why..
That I don't understand and maybe I never will, Questions left unanswered

Now your voice is still. To lose you was unbearable
And time and time again, I've tried to look for reason
That no one can explain. Life and death hold mysteries But one thing is for sure, I loved you then, I love you now and forever more.

Acknowledgements

The family of the late Jacqueline Fay Campbell wishes to acknowledge the many expressions of sympathy, and gestures of kindness shown to us during this time. We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to all our family, friends who have provided emotional and practical support during this difficult time. For your calls, prayers, visits, text, and words of comfort.

For their efficient, dignified, flexible and sensitive approach to our request the professionals at Blair Mazzarella Funeral Company.

To our Brooklyn Church family, there are not enough words to express how much we appreciate you and your dedication. The love you have shown has given us great comfort, it is deeply appreciated and will forever be remembered by the family. Pastor E. Benoit and family for your outpouring support. Pastor Julien and family, and the Mount Pisgah church family thank you for your kind gestures and expressions of sympathy. Elder Locksley Dyce and Family, Elder Herman and Claudine Phillip for your comforting words and genuine acts of kindness in our time of sadness.

We offer our heartfelt thanks to LaToya Duncan, Christine Honore, Flo Alleyne, Donna and Rochelle. Words cannot describe the important role you played during this difficult time. It is during our time of sorrow; we learn how much our friends and family means to us.
